Dear Sirs,

Enclosed is 4 photographs that you may consider as a suitable addition to your HMAS Sydney memorial.

Alexander Harold Doxey was the younger brother of my mothers. He was, as the well known song declares, only 19, when lost with HMAS Sydney.

The photos show,
Alexander with his parents & younger brother @ 7 Beatty Ave Victoria Park, WA. Taken on 16th July 1941.

Alexander @ the Acropolis(Greece), year not noted, but you will be able to establish that from Sydney records!

Alexander with Raymond Dent @ 7 Beatty Ave Victoria Park WA, taken on 12th Feb 1941.

Alexander portrait, date not known, but I assume taken not long after Alexanders posting to the Sydney.

Yours sincerely,
Ray Dent

To Mum, Dad,
and Sonny
with love and kisses
from your loving sailor
son and brother
Alex.

Taken at the entrance to the Ancient Ruins of Athens (the Acropolis)
in Greece.
